PROGRAM OVERVIEW & ACCREDITATION INFORMATION

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The A Comprehensive Review of Movement Disorders for the Clinical Practitioner course will discuss the classification of Movement Disorders, their differential diagnosis, and their treatment. The course curriculum also covers the phenomenology, pathophysiology, pathogenesis, epidemiology, genetics, and other aspects of the entire field of Movement Disorders.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After participating in this activity, the learner will be able to:

1. Recognize, diagnose, and classify parkinsonism, tremor, and other movement disorders
2. Differentiate atypical parkinsonism from Parkinson's disease
3. Describe the treatment approaches for parkinsonism, dystonia, tremor, chorea, and other movement disorders
4. Recognize the phenomenology and classification of functional (psychogenic) disorders
5. Differentiate and classify gait disorders in parkinsonism, ataxia, and other hypokinetic or hyperkinetic movement disorders

TARGET AUDIENCE

This course is intended for general neurologists, neurology residents, Movement Disorders fellows, and other health professionals who wish to enhance their knowledge of Movement Disorders.

OVERALL GOAL STATEMENT

The goal of this program is to provide information and practical information on various developments and standards within the field of Movement Disorders.

ACCREDITATION STATEMENT

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME). The International Parkinson and Movement Disorder Society is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.
